The candidate handbook is a useful tool in preparing for an examination.

It is highly recommended that the Wisconsin Real Estate Candidate Handbook be reviewed, with special attention given to the content outlines, before taking the examination. (Content outlines begin on page 15 of this handbook.)

Individuals who wish to obtain a real estate license must:

1. Complete Prelicensing Education.

Before taking an examination, candidates must complete all prelicensing education. Contact the Wisconsin Department of Regulation and Licensing for more details.

2. Make a reservation and pay the examination fee.

Make a reservation (by phone, by fax, or online) with Pearson VUE for the examination. (See page 6.)

3. Go to the test center.

Go to the test center on the day of the examination, bringing along all required materials. (See page 10.)

4. Apply for a license.

After passing the examination, candidates must submit the proper application forms and fees to the Wisconsin Department of Regulation and Licensing, as set forth on the Score Report issued at the test center. Contact the Wisconsin Department of Regulation and Licensing for more details.

Candidates must read state-specific information carefully for important information regarding examination procedures in their jurisdictions.
